THE DAILY PROGRESS.

VOL. VI. RALEIGH, MONDAY, NOV. 6, 1865 NO. 303.

BY J. L. PENNINGTON.

Seizure of $111,000 in Counterfeit Treasury Notes and Fractional Currency—One Man Arrested—The Police in Search of Others, &c.

About two months ago Francisco Bohagar, an Italian, thirty-three years of age, hired a dark, dingy room in the rear of premises No. 5 Goerck street, and although seldom seen by his neighbors, it was observed that a good many men, apparently from the country, visited Bohagar's premises, usually leaving with packages under their arms. These facts were soon noised abroad, and eventually came to the knowledge of officer Anderson, of the Thirteenth precinct, who immediately consulted with Capt. Steers in regard to the matter. It was soon decided to arrest Bohagar, and yesterday officer Anderson took him into custody. As the officer tapped him upon the shoulder Bohagar threw away a bunch of keys, which were secured by the officer. After taking the prisoner to the station house, Captain Steers, accompanied by officer Anderson, visited the prisoner's room, in which they found a trunk, mattress, chair, and an old stove. On prying the trunk, which one of the prisoner's keys fitted, large amounts of spurious Treasury notes of the denominations of $5 and $20 were found; also fifty cent postal currency of both issues. The trunk was conveyed to the police station and the money counted, when it loomed up to the magnificent sum of one hundred and eleven thousand dollars, done up in one thousand dollar packages. The bills are printed on poor paper, and in no respect are they calculated to deceive good judges of money.

The prisoner's room doubtless was the depot for the sale of the spurious money, and the countrymen seen visiting his place doubtless were purchasers for the Western and Southern markets. At different times, according to reports made to Captian Steers, men in carriages were seen to visit Bohagar's premises, taking with them large bundles. These men, in all probability, were the manufacturers of the bills which they were furnishing Bohagar. It is believed that very large amounts of this counterfeit money have been circulated in portions of the country where the people would be least likely to suspect its true character. At what rates the stuff sold did not transpire.

The prisoner pretends to speak the English language but imperfectly, and has little or nothing to say about the difficulty in which he is so deeply involved. He peremptorily refuses to disclose any facts going to show who are the principals or his accomplices in this wholesale attempt to flood the country with this counterfeit money. Captain Steers, with officer Anderson and other members of his force, however, are making strenuous efforts to dive deeper into the mysteries of this counterfeiting scheme, and with a fair prospect of success.—N. Y. Herald 29th.

—Gen. Fitzhugh Lee is in Richmond stopping at the Exchange Hotel.

—Hon. Herschell V. Johnson has gone to practice law at Augusta.

—Gen. Joseph E. Johnston is in Lynchburg on business connected wtih the National Express Company.

—The President has pardoned Pierre Soule.

—One hundred and fifteen bales of cotton were burned on the cars of the Alabama and Florida Railroad at Montgomery recently.

—Mr. Cushing's mission to Europe for the Government is purely and entirely professional and not diplomatic, as has been extensively circulated.

—Bishop Johns, and the delegates from Virginia to the General Convention of the Episcopal Church South, left Richmond yesterday for Augusta.

—During six weeks revival at the Leigh Street Baptist Church, Richmond, the Rev. Mr. Dickenson has added 80 members to his church.

—The receipts of cotton are fair at Savannah, but the market is dull and prices lower. Middling selling at 52 cents. Sea Island unchanged. Sales at 85c. a $1,25. Most of the sales were at $1 a $1,05.

—The Lynchburg Virginian, Tuesday, says: "We understand that the military officer late in command at Liberty, a Lieutenant, was poisoned one day last week, and lived only a short time after swallowing the poison."

—The Secretary of the Navy has ordered that a trial of the Algonquin shall be made at sea, substantially after the manner suggested by Mr. Forbes. The speed, however, is not to be limited to eight knots, but it will more likely approach thirteen.

—The statement of the Public Debt for October, shows a reduction of four millions during the month. The Government has on hand $34,500 000 of coin. There has been a reduction in the legal tender circulating notes of $44,500,000.

We are officially informed to-day that one thousand and twenty millions of dollars have been paid to the army alone since the beginning of the war—This is but a small portion of the number of dollars expended, to say nothing of the lives lost.

A resolution asking for information of the Provisional Governor whether President Johnson made repudiation a condition of readmission to the Union, was tabled by a large majority in the Georgia convention on Saturday.

The Treasury Department has decided that when public money is stolen from disbursing officers, the accounting officers of the Treasury cannot legally admit the sum stolen to the credit of the officer, even upon positive evidence of the theft; Congress alone can afford relief.

The New Orleans True Delta, of October 21, says that Hon. Duncan F. Kenner, a distinguished member of Congress of the late Confederate States, had reached home after a long absence. He has received a full pardon from the President, which is equivalent to the restoration of a large and valuable estate.

Considerable excitement exists in the town of Danvers, Mass., consequent upon the discovery in their coal bins, by a number of families, of several torpedoes. A Mrs. Dord discovered the first one, by its explosion in her range, which burst with terrific force. How they got into the coal bins is the present mystery.

—Dr. George W. Bagby, of Richmond, well known to the literary world as Mozis Addums, and who acquired an enviable reputation when editor of the Literary Messenger, is engaged in the collection, for publication, of materials for a work to be entitled "Anecdotes of the War." Dr. Bagby, whose pen is ready and graceful on any subject, peculiarly excels in the humorous style, and this contribution will be a valuable addition to Southern Literature.

The Washington Chronicle has the following paragraph:

In the North Carolina convention, while the Hon. B. F. Moore was facetiously haranguing the house against the telegram of President Johnson forbidding the assumption of the State rebel war debt, the flag staff upon the capitol broke, and fell upon the roof with a thundering shock that startled the convention, and was accepted as an omen. Rallying against the moral impression of the accident, Moore found the hardihood to exclaim: "Yes, Mr. Chairman, when North Carolina submits to dictation, that flag staff ought to fall!"

CLEANING OUT THE CONGRESS.—We notice underneath, the great accumulation of mud and sand between the ribs of the old Congress, now in the dry dock, and which is being rapidly cleaned out, that hundreds of barrels of salt junk, in a tolerably well preserved state, are being taken out by the workmen. Some of these barrels have been opened, and those who have cooked and eaten the beef, tell us it is just as good as any other salt beef put up in ordinary naval stores. This beef has been at the bottom of Hampton Roads for three years and six months.

A great number of water casks, some of which are very good, and will be used, and some twenty or thirty man-of-war iron tanks, which fit between the vessel's timbers, are being taken out.

Any quantity of old iron, ordnance, gun-carriages, cables, hawser's, &c., are being recovered.

Visitors are at the dock every day to view what remains of this remarkable old frigate which was the first victim to prove in this "age of iron," how worthless are wooden walls.—[Norfolk Old Dominion.

THE FUNERAL OF COLONEL DAHLGREN.—The remains of Colonel Ulric Dahlgren, who was killed on Kilpatrick's raid near Richmond in March, 1864, and whose body was recovered about six months ago, taken to Washington and placed temporarily in a vault at the Congressional Cemetery, were on Monday removed and placed in the Council Chamber, where they remained until near noon, the burial casket being draped with the national colors, while over the corpse was flung a mammoth flag, on which was a profusion of flowers and a photographic likeness of the deceased. The body was afterwards taken, under escort, to the First Presbyterian Church, where a funeral sermon was preached by Rev. Henry Ward Beecher from the 24th verse of the 20th chapter of Acts. After the close of the ceremonies the remains were escorted to the depot, accompanied by the family and friends. On the arrival of the train in Baltimore they were taken in charge by a number of General Hancock's officers and escorted to Philadelphia.

The "reaction" predicted by the Copperheads, which was to restore them to power, seems to be farther off than ever. The elections in 1865 have resulted as follows:

Vermont,	Union	majority,	20,000
Maine,	"	"	22,000
Pennsylvania,	"	"	25,000
Ohio,	"	"	30,000
Iowa,	"	"	20,000
Kentucky, a Union gain of			34,000

New York will join the column in November, and New Jersey will take her stand on the right side.—Massachusetts, Minnesota and Wisconsin will swell the list of Union majorities. The Democracy "as it is," may as well postpone the reaction indefinitely.

New York and New Jersey hold their elections tomorrow. The result is awaited with much anxiety.

The rumor is that Earl Russell will accept the Premiership, but nothing has officially transpired, the Queen being absent in Scotland.

The receipts at the Internal Revenue Bureau for the month ending yesterday, amounted to $80,457,988 03, being an average per diem of $982,515 58.

Generals Grant and Sherman were not guests at Sir Morton Peto's banquet in New York on Monday evening, as announced in the New York Times.

It is supposed in Georgia, that ex-Governor Joseph A. Brown, of that State, will now be again run for that office.

The Rev. Doctor Reed of Richmond, Virginia, preached two discourses on Sunday last, in New Haven, Connecticut, to large and delighted audiences.

It is said that Mr. Conrad, the member of Congress elected from the Seventh District in Virginia, will take the required oath.

The Fourth New York cavalry, which has been on duty in Southwestern Virginia for sometime past, is now on its way to Richmond, where it will be mustered out of service.

Captain C. F. Hall, the Arctic Explorer, has been heard from again. He was at Repulse Bay August 20th. He hopes to find some of the surviving members of Sir John Franklin's party.

Intelligence has been received that Admiral Denman, the British naval commander in the Pacific, has been ordered to send cruisers after the Shenandoah, who are to capture her, if met with.

General Muzzy, who has been acting as Military Secretary to the President, has at his own request, been relieved from duty, and granted a leave of absence for thirty days.

Captain George H. Butler, a nephew of General Butler, and formerly his aid de camp, has been appointed Inspector of Customs, to reside at Panama, vice John F. Simonton.

The Speaker of the Senate of the Mississippi Legislature is General Gholson, who lost an arm and was shot through the body while in the Confederate service.

Mr. A. Deslonde, the father-in-law of the Hon. John Slidell and General Beauregard, and who has long occupied a high position in New Orleans, recently died in that city, aged 82 years.

Col. Chas. Forsyth and E. O. Haile of the Mobile News, fought a duel near Mobile one day last week. After two shots an adjournment was effected. The weapons were shot guns, distance thirty paces, and neither of the combatants were hurt.

The National Express Company have recently purchased an extensive building on Broadway, New York, to be used as offices by that company. The subscriptions by persons in New York exceeds the original quota for that State by $200,000, amounting to $600,000.

A Georgia exchange says that many of the leading Methodist clergymen of that State, in consequence of the hostility still manifested by the Northern churches of that denomination toward their brethren at the South, have made overtures to be united ecclesiastically with the Episcopalians.

The Honolulu Advertiser, of the 30th September, publishes the names of ninety-five whaling vessels, mostly American, which have been destroyed by the Shenandoah. Thirty-three had been bonded or burned. The United States steamer Saranac was in quest of the pirate.

The Old Capitol Prison is now in charge of Capt. G. W. Dutton, V. R. C., and at present contains but twenty prisoners—Wirz, Duncan, former commissary at Andersonville; Capt. Winder, also of Andersonville notoriety; Gen. Briscoe, Fuller, for fraud in soldiers' votes; Phelan, for forgery on national banks, and about a dozen citizens, for horse stealing, &c.

THE CITY.

☞ Persons in city and country are requested, at all times, to furnish us verbal or written information of any events of public interest which may transpire in their neighborhoods, or of which they may have knowledge.

A BIG FIGHT.—There was a grand row at the Freedmen's Fair, in Guion's hotel, which did not appear on the bills. At late hour Saturday night and just before the close of the entertainment, a row occurred between ten or twelve freedmen, a few of whom had been taking an overdose of chain-lightning or tangle-tail whiskey. Sticks, knives, and other weapons were used with effect, particularly upon John Doran, who received five severe cuts on the arm and perhaps as many on the side. He is very badly damaged as were several other participants in the melee.

The parties to the affray were Bill Boylan, Scott Tucker, Henry Smith, Luke Copeland, Bush Boylan alias "Bushtail," Henry Mitchell and the aforesaid Doran. The police pounced upon them in the nick of time, captured and imprisoned all the belligerents who were not wounded, and left the latter to the tender mercies of the ambulance corps.

A REMINDER.—Deviljoe, a facetious knight of the quill, invokes the following anathemas upon men who won't pay the printer. If there are patrons of the Progress belonging to the class referred to, they should at once "come down" with the small balance due:

May he never be permitted to kiss a handsome woman.

May he have sore eyes and a chesnut burr for an eye-stone.

May his boots leak, his gun hang fire, and his fishing lines break.

May one thousand night-mares trot quarter-races over his stomach every night.

May every day of his life be more despotic than the Dey of Algiers.

And may his coffee be sweetened with flies and his sauce seasoned with spiders.

FOR THE LADIES.—The latest agony in the hat line is said to be composed of straw in the main, and the form after the manner of a mushroom running up into a sort of rounded peak and running down in the similitude of an inverted dish. The horrid thing, we trust, will not be patronized by our fair townswomen. If fashion outrages good taste, they should put their little feet down on it in the outset.

But the cutest thing of the times, we saw in the hands of a lady yesterday—a new style muff. It is in the shape of the morocco bags which ladies carry when they go out shopping. A pocket for the purse and another for the handkerchief are in the muff, and there are also cord and tassels to go around the neck. Now this is something both elegant and unique, which ought to be extensively patronized.

THE FIRST NAVAL OFFICER PARDONED.—We have the pleasure to announce that Capt. John J. Guthrie, late of the confederate navy, and previously lieutenant in the U. S. N., has been pardoned by President Johnson.

He is a native of this county and served an apprenticeship in Raleigh at the book-binding business with the late D. Lindeman, a respected citizen of Raleigh in 1830. Our oldest inhabitants will no doubt remember him, and from the example of his apprentice, Capt. Guthrie, young folks may borrow encouragement. Perseverance will bring promotion and other success.

THE NEW COUNTERFEIT.—The new fifty-dollar counterfeit United States note, which we recently described, is considered by many bank officers as one of the most perfect imitations ever issued. The vignette, which is the head of Hamilton, probably presents the best mark for distinguishing between the genuine and counterfeit. On the former the buttons of the coat show distinctly, while on the latter they can scarcely be seen. As the vignette of the United States twos is the same as that of the fifties, the public should be well on their guard, as it is not improbable that the parties who put the fifties afloat are altering the same plate for twos.

UNPLEASANT DAYS.—During Friday and Saturday this section of country was favored with a deluge in miniature. The sun was totally obscured for nearly forty eight hours, which with the rain made out door movements very unpleasant. Business was confined principally to the inside, and all classes of tradesmen looked exceedingly blue. Yesterday the wind blew up cold and fresh from the polar regions—men buttoned up coats and the shiver part of the world appeared cloaked and muffed. The sun came out merrily, however, and in spite of wintry sensations people appeared to rejoice on account of the change.

THE LATE SHOOTING.—The shooting affair at the North Carolina depot, mentioned in Friday's issue, did not result seriously. Mr. Kromer shot at a Mr. Gunther, but the ball took effect in the shoulder of Mr. Sherman, though the hurt is not a serious one. The trio were personal friends and we understand adjusted their differences without operation of law.

NOT SO—The reported killing of a negro, Friday night, in the neighborhood of Vinegar Hill.

As an item to their credit, we hear that disturbances in several bad localities have been much less frequent than before the organization of our present police force.

THANKSGIVING DAY.—The President having designated the first Thursday in December as a day of general thanksgiving for the restoration of peace throughout the land and the triumph of the Union in the late civil war, we hope that we shall have here such an observance of the occasion as will be creditable to our people. The day appointed is one week later than that generally selected for such services—the last Thursday of November—but there is no doubt it will be distinguished above all its predecessors in many respects.

CARELESS.—Many of our citizens in not properly fastening their houses. At this time when so many worthless and idle persons are roaming through the country, it is very unsafe to have shutters and doors unfastened. We hear of an instance, transpiring last Saturday, where some unknown rascal entered a yard and took a cloak and two dresses from a table near an open window. The trick was only discovered after the thief had passed away.

MORE VOTERS.—The private secretary of Governor Holden announces that the following persons additional to those already announced will be entitled to vote next Thursday:

Forsythe—John G Sides.
Cabarrus—Laird Alexander, Samuel Pharr.
Randolph—M Shaw.
Northampton—Thos Goode Tucker.
New Hanover—Wm B Giles.
Lenoir—Nathan B Whitfield.
Carteret—Josiah F Bell.

SHOT AT.—Sunday morning, about 1 o'clock, a gentleman passing down Fayetteville street, saw a man jump over a fence with shoes in hand, and regarding the action with suspicion, called on the apparition to halt. The gent in socks refused, when our friend opened on him with pistol. He frightened if he did not hit him, and made the retreating figure put up a piteous howl.

GODEY FOR NOVEMBER.—This sterling periodical has been received and sustains most fully its hitherto high reputation. We regard it as the best publication of the kind in the country. We remind our lady friends that this is the month in which to begin to form clubs so as to commence their subscriptions on 1st of January.

GOOD APPOINTMENT.—James E. Nash has been appointed agent for the national express company, to reside at Newbern. This is an excellent appointment and we conclude shows determination on the part of the new concern to begin operations at an early day.

GONE.—Our friend Vestal, of the Newbern Times, is a goner. See here:

Married, on Tuesday, 24th ult., near Nashville, Tenn., W. I. VESTAL and Miss LAURA VESTAL.

We wish the twain a long life of unbroken felicity and—much else that is desirable.

ARRESTED.—We are informed that Officer Betts yesterday arrested a negro who had in his possession a bolt of cloth and several other valuables of which he could not give a very intelligent account. He was locked up.

ON DIT—that a man named Ray was thrown from his buggy yesterday, near Rolesville, and so badly injured that he died in a few hours. We trust there may be no foundation for the report, or that the statement may prove to be highly coloured.

GRAIN, &c.—At a recent sale of produce, near the city, cash down, corn brought $4 per barrel, fodder and shucks $1 per hundred, and wheat $2.80 per bushel. We believe these prices are considered fair.

KINSTON.—Gov. Holden has appointed J. B. Cummings, Esq., mayor of Kinston, vice Henry R. Strong, dec'd; and Bryan McCullers, commissioner, in the room of the newly appointed mayor.

General W. B. Franklin was in the city on Saturday, and had an interview with General Grant and the President. The General has been offered the position of President of the Colt's Arms Company, with a salary of $8,000 a year and an interest, and is about to resign his commission in the army to accept it. General Franklin's name is intimately associated with all that was manly and patriotic when the war began, and whatever sphere of life he may engage in he will be sure to receive the respect and admiration of all who appreciate integrity and personal worth.—[Washington Intelligencer.

The Buffalo Courier, the mouth-piece, in Western New York, of the Van Buren Democracy, goes for the assumption and payment of the rebel debt, quietly trusting its party to slaughter the Federal debt. It says:

"We vote for the Union and the payment of the war debt of both the South and the North."

DAILY PROGRESS.

RALEIGH, N. C.

NATIONAL UNION ANDREW JOHNSON TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR:

WILLIAM W. HOLDEN,

OF WAKE COUNTY.

Election Thursday, 9th November, 1865.

FOR CONGRESS:

FOURTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT,

COL. J. P. H. RUSS,

OF WAKE COUNTY.

"Every dollar of the debt created to aid the rebellion against the United States should be repudiated finally and forever.—ANDREW JOHNSON to GOV. HOLDEN.

Jonathan Worth, and the "Sentinel," the organ of the disaffected faction that brought him forward for Governor, are in favor of taxing the people to pay the rebel State debt.

LETTER FROM THE EDITOR.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.

Yesterday I saw the Postmaster General, and though he has been looked on as a radical man, I liked his views, as expressed to me, relative to the future of the country and the relative duties of the government and the people of the South. If our people are really willing to accept the logic of events and let their submission to the national authority be unconditional, nothing will be done to humilite them; but if they begin, as some seem bent on doing, to probe the old sores, and insist on fighting the battles of the last four years over again on paper and in legislative halls, they will find that the dominant party of the North will stand as a wall of fire against them. I was pleased with Mr. Dennison, and have the fullest confidence in his expressions of good feeling for the South.

The chief of the appointment bureau assured me that Mr. Macey should be appointed route agent for the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad, and that an appointment should be at once made for the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad.

Henry Ward Beecher, Rt. Rev. Bishop Atkinson, Phineas T. Barnum, Thurlow Weed and other celebrities are in the city.

Many persons are here from all over the South seeking pardon and the restoration of property, and some of the States are appointing agents here to help their citizens through; and I believe our Legislature would do well to send an agent here, or appoint some one already here, as a means of assisting our citizens to recover what belongs to them.

The more I have seen and heard, the more I am convinced that no member will be admitted that cannot take the test oath; and some knowing ones assert that no members will be admitted from the seceded States during the next session. The vote for Hampton, in South Carolina, is considered a bad symptom, and the defeat of Gov. Holden by the factionists in North Carolina would be considered worse still. If the people of the State are not bent on self-destruction, they should give Gov. Holden a unanimous vote. If they vote down Union men, because they are such, they need not talk of civil law, or think of getting clear of the military, for they will be sure to retain the one and not get the other.—Vote as you please, of course, but then if your voting does not satisfy the government of your loyalty, you cannot expect favor. There is too much disposition on the part of the people of the State, I fear, to think that they have not sinned, and hence have nothing to atone for. The delusion may be pleasant, but if kept up the results will be bitter, for it will keep us out of the Union and under military rule.—The majority in Congress will hardly appreciate the arguments Southern men are putting forward against the constitutionality of certain acts of Congress, for they cannot forget the fact that these same men but yesterday, as it were, were doing all in their power to destroy the government itself.

I met Col. J. H. Wheeler at the house of a citizen to-night.

I have seen but few North Carolinians here, but I suppose it is owing to the fact that Gov. Holden has got them nearly all out of trouble.

Shall bid adieu to the Capitol to-morrow morning.

P.

We beg every citizen of North Carolina to read and ponder the paragraph below, which we copy from the National Intelligencer, at Washington city:

"Several members of Congress, regarded as radical in the extreme, are in the city, and are said to be quite earnest and unreserved in their expressions of opposition to tolerating any person in Congress from the lately rebellious States, without the most improbable conditions."

No paper at the national capital is perhaps so friendly to the South as the journal from which the preceding quotation is made. Its significance results from the fact that it is authoritative on the subject to which it refers and because it warns North Carolina of the dangers which menace her path of restoration to the Union. It is not partizanship for any man which inspires in our mind confidence that the defeat of Gov. Holden would seriously embarrass the interests of the State. The declaration of the Radicals to whom the Intelligencer refers is that the REBELLIOUS STATES SHALL NOT BE REPRESENTED IN CONGRESS BY ANY PERSON, WITHOUT THE MOST IMPROBABLE CONDITIONS. The case presented is not one requiring argument for its enforcement—it is simply a clear, concise, plain statement that the representatives sent to Washington must possess the unshaken confidence of the North; that they shall be untainted with a suspicion of disloyalty; and this by the standard of public men whose views are of the most radical character.

We deduce from all this that there is only one hopeful aspect of the question for us. It is not merely essential to the reception of our representatives to Congress that their loyalty shall be indisputable, but equally requisite that no act of the State, at the ballot-box, negatives the impression which the selection of representatives, capable of subscribing the test oath, would make in our behalf.

If this is true, the next important inquiry which presents itself is, what course promises to fix North Carolina in such a favorable attitude? Unless we greatly err the question admits of no debate. We honestly believe that the result will best and only certainly be attained by the decisive defeat of Mr. Worth, the triumphant election of Gov. Holden, and the return to Congress only of such gentlemen as can, unhesitatingly and in good conscience, take the test oath.

There is evidently no truth in the delusion which some of our people have embraced, to the effect that the Southern States could reappear in their sovereign capacity in the national counsels without difficulty. The consequences of revolution are too momentous—cost too heavily in blood and treasure—retard individual as well as collective prosperity too seriously—for the successful parties to trust the vanquished unless repentance is substantiated both by profession and action. Our protestations of submission have been frequent, loud, and, as a rule, honest enough; now let us doubly confirm them by actions in which shall be proclaimed the great truth: that our chief ambition is the indestructibility of the Union.

We repeat our belief, that any considerable show of opposition to Gov. Holden will be regarded by our best friends in the North as an effort to punish him for the very efficient and cordial support he gave the policy of restoration to the Union before the fall of the Confederacy. No sane man ought to doubt this; and if it be admitted as a fair conclusion from the premises stated, then it is not difficult to realize that it would righteously provoke a spirit of retaliation. The North cannot without utter discredit abandon those public men of our section who, for the Union, braved not only the power of Mr. Davis' government, but the menaces and dangers of community violence in the form of mob-law. It is not in chivalric nature to applaud or propound the theory of abandoning friends in their hours of trial, nor will the Northern people or their representatives fail to regard with peculiar favor those very men who resisted Confederate power and secession heresies in their day of strength.

In brief, while the improbable conditions to our welcome back to the Union do not exist, we may, can, will create them if we defeat HOLDEN or elect to Congress men whose record will forbid them taking the test oath. We believe this—and we say it reverently—as firmly as we do any of the truths of revelation, in all of which we have unquestioning faith.

Jeff. Davis and C. C. Clay.

A correspondent of the New York Herald, writing from Fortress Monroe, says:

Jeff. Davis shows pluck and lives hopefully. His chief torments now are boils, and his chief source of amusement, reading "Bancroft's History of the United States." By the way, the whole fort library has lately been opened to him; so he has all the reading, and good matter, too, he chooses. He expects soon to be called to trial, but no notification of the fact has yet reached him, nor has there been any late correspondence with any of his counsel. He has a large, airy room, good attendance, a good fire, and, with his daily walks and privileges of reading and correspondence, and the excellent meals furnished him, fares more like a lord than a prisoner. There is now no guard stationed in his room as formerly.

Mr. Clay continues in the enjoyment of excellent health. He seems greatly at a loss to account for his prolonged imprisonment, and defies, I am told, the possibility of proving his complicity, in the remotest degree, with the assassination of President Lincoln. His anxiety for speedy trial is as strong as ever.

As to the trial of Jeff. Davis, the Washington correspondent of the Tribune says:

Messrs. Speed, Rousseau, Evarts, and others, counsel for the Government, announced in a New York paper, as positively determined on, was true in August, but is not true now. Public opinion has changed since then, and Governmental measures always follow public opinion. It is admitted as a fact, that any trial in a Southern State, would be a farce.

It is equally a fact, that the Southern States unanimously desire his pardon; that the majority of the Democratic party hold the same opinion, and now that the leaders of the radical wing of the Republican party have expressed the same wish, it is believed it will be taken for granted that a majority of the nation are opposed to his punishment.

Dr. Jordan, editor of the Indianapolis Gazette, who was one of the most successful physicians in Cincinnati, in 1849, in the treatment of cholera, speaks as follows, in his journal, in reference to that terrible plague:

"In all probability it (the cholera) will be here next year, and it may be early in the spring or summer We have had some experience in the treatment of this dreadful disease, in 1849, in Cincinnati, as some of our readers will probably recollect, and we found one article of very great importance—that of prickly ash berries. We, therefore, advise druggists everywhere to secure as many of these berries as they can, or at least a reasonable quantity. This can be done by letting the country people know about it, and they will gather them. Should the cholera come we shall certainly want some of these berries. As to the manner of using them, it will be time enough to speak of that hereafter."

MR. STEPHENS IN EAST TENNESSEE.—Hon. A. H. Stephens, Vice President of the late Confederacy, was respectfully treated on his passage through that turbulent country, East Tennessee. The Jonesboro' Union Flag announces his presence at that place as follows:

"On Tuesday morning last, the 24th instant, Hon. A. H. Stephens, of Georgia, late Vice President of the Southern Confederacy, passed through Jonesboro', on his way to his native State. As the train stopped but a few moments, he did not leave his seat in the passenger coach, but sat quietly smoking his cigar and conversed pleasantly with the many citizens who called in to see him."

THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN SOUTH CAROLINA.—Bishop Davis, of the Episcopal Church in South Carolina, has addressed a letter to his clergy and laity on the subject of the proposed reunion of the Northern and Southern branches of that denomination. He maintains that, owing to political events, the ecclesiastical division was unavoidable, and is in favor of continuing the separation, but is willing to submit to the decision of the General Convention of the Church South, which is to assemble in Mobile during next month.

ELOPEMENT.—A married woman residing in Wes Ward eloped on Wednesday night. She left her husband and child, the latter young and helpless, to seek happiness (so-called) with another man. Her family stand well; her father is a respectable, good citizen, and her brother, a gallant soldier, lost his life at the battle of the Crater, in July, 1864. The erring lady has borne a good reputation hitherto.—[Petersburg Index.

ELECTION NOTICES.

FELLOW-CITIZENS OF THE COUNTY OF WAKE.—Having been solicited to become a candidate for a seat in the next Legislature in the House of Commons, I take this opportunity of announcing myself a candidate. If elected, my vote, on all occasions will be for the strictest and most economical management of all State and county affairs. I shall oppose the borrowing of money by issuing State bonds, which, at the present time, would have to be sold at a very great sacrifice. Economy is, in my opinion, the only safe road.

I have been raised, and have lived all my life, and am known to nearly all the voters in the county. My views and opinions are, therefore, as well known as I could make them, should I visit every precinct. I am opposed to negro suffrage and negro testimony. If elected, I promise to make you a faithful servant.

I shall support W. W. Holden for Governor.
nov2-tde* H. O. PARKER.

ANDREW JOHNSON, HOLDEN UNION TICKET. Dr. WM. SLOAN, of Gaston County, will be supported most heartily for the House of Representatives of the United States Congress, by all loyal men looking to early restoration and general harmony.

Dr. Sloan's record will furnish no data for his rejection at the hands of the Federal Congress. This, the Charlotte District, is now the 6th.
nov1-3t* MANY VOTERS.

WE ARE AUTHORIZED TO ANNOUNCE RUFUS K. FERRELL as a candidate for the House of Commons of the next General Assembly. Election on the 9th November. oct31-tde

WE ARE AUTHORIZED TO ANNOUNCE MAJOR WM. F. COLLINS a candidate to represent Granville county in the House of Commons of the ensuing Legislature. His sentiments will be published in the form of a circular "To the People of Granville." Read it. oct31-tde

TO THE VOTERS OF WAKE COUNTY.—At the request of many voters, I am a candidate in this county for the House of Commons of the General Assembly.

The Convention requested the Governor to appoint a committee of three persons to prepare and report to the Legislature a system of laws for freedmen, and to specify what laws relating to them ought to be repealed.

He has done me the honor to designate me as one of them. This work, with their indispensable engagements, will so occupy my whole time as to forbid my mingling much, if any, with the people. I shall represent your sentiments on all constitutional measures, if they are known to me.

I avail myself of this occasion to assure you of my grateful sense of your confidence recently expressed in electing me to the Convention. If I am honored again by your confidence I shall strive to merit it by my services. Very respectfully, yours, oct30-tde B. F. MOORE.

TO THE VOTERS OF WAKE COUNTY.—I announce myself as a candidate for the office of Superior Court Clerk of Wake county, at the ensuing election on the 9th of November, and if elected, will serve you with industry and fidelity.

It will be impossible for me to see you all before the election, and you will naturally wish to know what I am for and against. I am for David A. Wicker, alias Snider, for Superior Court Clerk, and against Bunting, alias Mose, and Buck Moore.

Hoping you will vote for me, I am your obedient servant, [oct27-tde] DAVID A WICKER.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE FOURTH CONGRESsional District, composed of the counties of Orange, Chatham, Granville, Warren, Franklin, Nash, Johnston and Wake:

FELLOW CITIZENS:—I hereby announce myself a candidate to represent you in the next Congress of the United States. The short time between this and the day of election precludes the possibility of a canvass.—Indeed, in the present condition of the country, a heated political campaign should be deprecated by all.—The particular measures that will claim the attention of the ensuing Congress cannot now with certainty be known. Hence, idle speculations and precedent pledges are, for the most part, vain and unnecessary. There is a question, however, which seems to be agitating, to some extent, the minds of the people, both North and South, but which properly comes within the purview of the State Legislature. I allude to negro suffrage, to which I am utterly opposed. I am in favor, as no doubt all of us are, of the speedy restoration of civil law in the State.

If I am honored, fellow-citizens, by your suffrages with a seat in Congress, I can only promise you to guard zealously your best interests—to devote what ability I may possess to the advocacy and preservation of all your rights—and to uphold and maintain, to the full extent of my power, whatever measures will redound to the welfare, freedom and honor of North Carolina. I sincerely and ardently desire that our people may soon be restored to the enjoyment of all their rights of both person and property, and that they may again be blessed with prosperity, liberty and happiness.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,
A H ARRINGTON.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

In the year 1846, the writer embarked in the Drug Business in the city of Philadelphia, and while thus engaged, made several experiments in regard to the most desirable mode of preparing Fluid Extracts. My efforts being successful—the articles being approved and used by the medical faculty—I was desirous of placing them before the public, but hesitated for some time before concluding to resort to newspaper advertising, knowing of the prejudices that existed in the minds of many against using advertised Medicines or Nostrums, but through the advice of friends and those who had used them this objection was overcome.

After 18 years' exertions, commencing in a small way, the popularity of my articles has extended to all parts of the United States, and widely throughout foreign countries—and this in the face of much opposition.—Every means has been resorted to by unprincipled dealers since their merit and success have been known—such as advertising large bottles at less price, censuring all other preparations, and even copying my advertisements—but I am happy to state that out of the many who have resorted to this, none have been successful.

MY OBJECT

in this notice is to make facts known to the public and respectable dealers, believing, after so many years' exertions, that the Druggists will discountenance such proceedings, and that the reputation of my articles may not be damaged by the use of inferior or spurious ones.

Knowing that many may read this article who are unacquainted with me, I append a few remarks from those of my native city, and whose names are known in all parts of the world:

"Being personally acquainted with Mr. H. T. Helmbold, it affords me pleasure in stating I have been most favorably impressed with his energy and integrity, and gratified at his success." WM. WEIGHTMAN,
Firm of Powers & Weightman,
Ninth and Brown Streets, Philadelphia.

[Evening Bulletin, Philadelphia.]

"When on a visit to the city of New York, a few days since, I was induced to call on our old friend and townsman, Mr. H. T. Helmbold, Druggist, 594 Broadway, N. Y. His store is a model—a perfect gem—the handsomest of any kind we have ever had the pleasure of viewing, and so extensive, being 34 feet front, five stories in height, and over 200 feet deep. It indeed affords us much pleasure to know that he has been so successful and it is ample evidence of the merits of his articles—as in our whole business experience we have not known of the success of any articles without merit—advertising merely bringing the name before the people."

[Boston Herald.]

"We do not like to advertise worthless wares, or articles calculated to deceive our readers; and when we see an advertiser like Mr. Helmbold, whom we have known for years, gradually extend his advertising from year to year until he becomes the largest advertiser in the United States, we are satisfied that the statements in regard to his articles must be correct."

The writer reluctantly inserts the above, and would not do so were he not a stranger to many; and concludes by stating the names of his articles, and the diseases for which they have been used by many thousands with complete success.

BURNING OF THE MUSEUM!
LETTER FROM MR. P. T. BARNUM!

New York, July 14, 1865.

Messrs. Herring & Co.:

GENTLEMEN—Though the destruction of the American Museum has proved a serious loss to myself and the public, I am happy to verify the old adage that "It's an ill wind that blows nobody good," and, consequently, congratulate you that your well-known safes have again demonstrated their superior fire-proof qualities in an ordeal of unusual severity.

The safe you made for me some time ago was in the office of the Museum, on the second floor, back part of the building, and in the hottest of the fire.

After twenty-four hours of trial it was found among the debris, and on opening it this day has yielded up its contents in very good order—books, papers, policies of insurance, bank bills, all in condition for immediate use, and a noble commentary on the trustworthiness of Herring's Fire-Proof Safes.

Truly yours,
P. T. BARNUM,

HERRING'S PATENT CHAMPION SAFES.

The most reliable protection from fire now known.

NEW SKIRT FOR 1865.
The Great Invention of the Age in Hoop Skirts.

J. W. BRADLEY'S NEW PATENT DUPLEX ELLIPTIC, (OR DOUBLE) SPRING SKIRT.

THIS INVENTION CONSISTS OF DUPLEX (OR two) Elliptic Pure Rolled Steel Springs, ingeniously braided tightly and firmly together, edge to edge, making the toughest, most flexible, elastic and durable Spring ever used. They seldom bend or break, like the single Springs, and consequently preserve their perfect and beautiful shape more than twice as long as any Single Spring Skirt that ever has or can be made.

The wonderful flexibility and great comfort and pleasure to any Lady wearing the Duplex Elliptic Skirt will be experienced particularly in all crowded Assemblies, Operas, Carriages, Railroad Cars, Church Pews, Arm-Chairs, for Promenade and House Dress, as the Skirt can be folded when in use to occupy a small place as easily and conveniently as a Silk or Muslin Dress.

A Lady having enjoyed the Pleasure, Comfort and Great Convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Steel Spring Skirt for a single day will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For Children, Misses and Young Ladies they are superior to all other.

The dooplars are covered with 2 ply double twisted thread and will wear twice as long as the Single yarn covering which is used on all Single Steel Hoop Skirts. The three bottom rods on every Skirt are also Double Steel, and twice or double covered to prevent the covering from wearing off the rods when dragging down stairs, stone steps, &c., &c., which they are constantly subject to when in use.

All are made of the new and elegant Corded Tapes, and are the best quality in every part, giving to the wearer the most graceful and perfect shape possible, and are unquestionably the lightest, most desirable, comfortable and economical Skirt ever made.

WESTS', BRADLEY & CARY, (late J. I. & J. O. West,) Proprietors of the Invention, and sole manufacturers, 97 Chambers and 79 & 81 Reade Streets, New York.

For sale in all first-class stores in this City, and throughout the United States and Canada, Havana de Cuba, Mexico, South America and the West Indies.

TO THE

PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

WHEREAS, A CONVENTION OF THE PEOPLE of North Carolina has been chosen in pursuance of the proclamation of ANDREW JOHNSON, President of the United States, of date May 29th, 1865, under the fourth section of the fourth article of the Constitution of the United States, which guarantees to every State in the Union a republican form of government, for the purpose of enabling the loyal people of said State to organize a State government, whereby justice may be established, domestic tranquility restored, and loyal citizens protected in all their rights of life, liberty and property; and for the purpose also of restoring said State to its Constitutional relations to the Federal Government, by presenting such a republican form of government as will entitle the State to the guarantees of the United States therefor, and its people to protection by the United States against invasion, insurrection and domestic violence: And said Convention having assembled in the City of Raleigh and adopted Ordinances hereinafter set forth, I, WILLIAM W. HOLDEN, Provisional Governor of said State, do hereby proclaim and declare that an election will be held in the various counties of said State on Thursday, the ninth day of November, 1865, as follows:

1st. For the ratification or rejection of "An Ordinance declaring null and void the ordinance of May the 20th, 1861."

2d. For the ratification or rejection of "An Ordinance prohibiting slavery in the State of North Carolina."

3d. For a Governor and members of the General Assembly.

4th. For seven members of the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States.

5th. For Clerks and Sheriffs of the respective counties.

"The elections shall be conducted in accordance with "An Ordinance providing for the election of the members of the General Assembly, to be convened on the fourth Monday of November, eighteen hundred and sixty five, and for electing Representatives in Congress and Governor of the State," ratified by the Convention the tenth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and hereinafter set forth; said Ordinance having been passed in pursuance of the proclamation of the President of the United States, of date May 29th, 1865, authorizing said Convention to "prescribe the qualifications of electors, and the eligibility of persons to hold office under the constitution and laws of the State." And also, in conformity with the rules and regulations prescribed by the laws of this State concerning said elections, in force previous to the 20th day of May, 1861.

The people of the State are respectfully urged to maintain order among themselves at the election, and to discountenance appeals, the tendency of which may be to produce ill-feeling and alienation towards the Federal Government. The policy of the government has been liberal and generous towards North Carolina, and no pains should be spared to secure a continuance of this policy.

And the officers in the various counties, appointed by the Provisional Governor, are enjoined to exert themselves to preserve the peace among the people on the day of the election; to act with justice and firmness in all matters that may claim their attention; to see that those entitled to vote are protected in their right of suffrage, and that every manifestation, if such manifestation there should be, of hostility to the Federal Government, is promptly rebuked and repressed.

Done at our city of Raleigh, the 18th day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and in the year of the Independence of the United States the ninetieth.

W. W. HOLDEN, Provisional Governor.
By the Governor: W. R. RICHARDSON, Private Sec.
